1. [REDACTED] formerly a Security Officer for OSS and now a lawyer in Philadelphia, has written me concerning [REDACTED], who has been for a year a secretary in the Philadelphia law office. [REDACTED] understands that her husband, A. S. [REDACTED], has recently joined CIA and will be stationed here. [REDACTED] recommends her very highly as a thoroughly experienced legal secretary, with the added qualities of efficiency, loyalty, cheerfulness and a sense of humor. STATINTL

2. [REDACTED] has asked [REDACTED] to call on me and I shall be glad to see her. Probably she will appear in a week or so.

3. I am sending you this information in the event she applies directly to Personnel, and I will refer her to you in any case. However, in view of her legal experience, I am anxious to keep in touch with her and at least be able to have a chance to be assigned to this office in the event she is employed.
